 - Cégep de Saint-Laurent
 - Cégep de Sorel-Tracy
 - Collège de Valleyfield
 - Vanier College
 - Cégep du Vieux Montréal
- Any incomplete form or any entry that does not meet the admissibility criteria may result in the participant being excluded from the program.
- A single entry per person will be accepted.
- Show tickets will be offered per the following dates and times:
 - Carmina Burana / Stabat Mater, Friday October 11th, 2019, at 8 PM at the Salle Wilfrid-Pelletier
 - The Nutcracker, Thursday, December 12th, 2019, at 7:30 PM at the Salle Wilfrid-Pelletier
 - Luna, Friday March 19th, 2020, at 8 PM at Théâtre Maisonneuve
 - Sleeping Beauty, Friday June 5th, 2020, at 8 PM at the Salle Wilfrid-Pelletier
- The category of tickets offered will be chosen at the discretion of Les Grands Ballets and per availability.
- Each winner, selected by random draw, will be offered a pair of tickets for one of the above-listed shows. A ticket grants entry to a show. Any additional fees that may be incurred (such as, but not limited to, parking, coat check and beverages) are the responsibility of the individual.
- Winners will be advised by email during the week of September 23th, 2019, and must claim their prize by replying with a confirmation email within 5 business days. If a confirmation is not received within this delay, the individual forfeits the prize and a new winner will be drawn.
- Each winner will receive an email reminder with the title and date of the show they have won tickets to 1 week prior to the performance. An email confirmation will again be requested at this moment.
- Should the winner no longer be able to attend the performance, they must inform Laurence Gauvreau-Peck in advance at lgpecek@grandsballets.com so that the pair of tickets may be redistributed.
- Tickets will be available under the winner's name at the press table at the entrance to the theatre as of 1 hour before the start of the performance. A proof of identification will be requested.
- Winners won't be able to change the date of the tickets.
