

Les Grands Ballets' Jeunes Gouverneurs Organize a Fabulous Garden Party to Mark Their Fifth Anniversary

Montreal, March 9, 2016 – The eagerly awaited Soirée des Jeunes gouverneurs, presented by National Bank in collaboration with L'Oréal Professionnel, is back! Just in time to celebrate both the arrival of spring and the 5th anniversary of the Jeunes gouverneurs, more than 400 young professionals will gather at Place des Arts on April 1 for an unforgettable Garden Party-themed benefit gala.

On the program: green carpet, canapés, cocktails, and hair touch-up booth from 6.30 P.M. to 8 P.M., a presentation of choreographer Ohad Naharin's *Minus One at Théâtre Maisonneuve and a dance party in the company of Les Grands Ballets' dancers, along with a cocktail reception, open bar, photobooth, silent auction including a pair of tickets for a Montreal-Europe flight, courtesy of Air France, and much more! The attendees will not want to miss the National Bank experience and their contest, in partnership with L'Oréal Professionnel.

For more information or to purchase tickets:

jeunesgouverneurs.com

Benefiting Les Grands Ballets, the event will be a magical combination of ballet, celebration and gastronomical delights: a unique opportunity to mingle and network in a fun and festive ambience!

About the Jeunes Gouverneurs

Founded in 2012, the Jeunes Gouverneurs Committee is made up of young professionals whose mission is to educate a new generation about philanthropy and create networking opportunities while making ballet accessible to everyone by holding fundraising events in collaboration with Les Grands Ballets. After 5 rich years of operations, the Jeunes Gouverneurs are excited to expand their range of activities as Les Grands Ballets grows within their new home, the Édifice Wilder Espace Danse.

- 30 -